HOLY ORTHODOX CHURCH
WESTERN AND EASTERN RITES

Constitution, Enactment, and Publication History

1917, 1927, 1932, 1939 without changes, published by:
The Society of St. Basil, Mount Vernon, Western Rite Vicariate, re-publication 1963.

Revised: American Synod, Holy Orthodox Church Eastern and Western Rites Liturgical Calendar, 1979, reprinted with no changes 1981.

Orthodox Catholic Archdiocese of Orleans, Western Rite Calendar only, no changes, May 3, 1991; Rev. for corrections, December 25, 1991; Rev. for corrections, added non-liturgical commemorations with some matters of local custom and private devotions, February 6, 1993; Rev. adding Eastern Rite approved liturgical calendar and additional traditional Western Rite local traditional observances and selected old calendar dates March 12, 1994; revised for clarity June 8, 1994; September 12, 1996, added: February 2, Candlemass Day, Blessing of Candles to be used during the Liturgical year.) [Note, had added at earlier date as well.]
December 9, 1996, added: October 22, Archbishop Aftimios Ofiesh born, and July 24, died. December 10, 1996, added: In the table of Sundays and Movable Feasts for both W and E, added notation that Western Rite Great Lent begins on (Ash) Wednesday of that week and Eastern Rite Great Lent begins on Monday of that week, making the following weeks days from Monday through Wednesday be offset so that the First Monday in Western Rite Great Lent is the Second Monday in Eastern Rite Great Lent, and so on.
December 10, 1996, corrected: "Sun 16th Sun after Pent. - 15th week", to read "Sun 16th Sun after Pent. - 16th week"; and corrected "MOTHER'S DAY - (US) is the first Sunday in May" to read "MOTHER'S DAY - (US) is the second Sunday in May". December 30, 1996, corrected and added some commemorations of deceased Clergy, corrected some spelling errors, and expanded Paschal Table. October 15, 1997, corrected some feast dates. November 1, 1997, corrected alternate date for All Souls Day. December 28, 1997, corrected rubrics regarding celebration of certain feasts vis-a-vis celebration of the Sunday. December 27, 1998, under the direction of The Society of Clerks Secular of Saint Basil, the form of observance of Great Lent relative to Ash Wednesday for Western Rite was modified to a more logical calendar correlation to the Eastern Rite.

The Society of Clerks Secular of Saint Basil, in conjunction and agreement with, the Orthodox Catholic Church of the Americas (the Orthodox Catholic Archdiocese of Louisiana), April 18, 1999, added Novena to the Divine Mercy (Chaplet), and Feast of the Divine Mercy. January 1, 2000 A.D., deleted references to Old Calendar (Julian) and deleted explanations of Western Rite traditional feasts which were brought into The Society of Clerks Secular of Saint Basil as not requiring explanation considering Patriarch Athenagoris' implicit approval; corrected some entries. January 6, 2001 A.D., corrected some typographical errors. December 23, 2001 A.D., added some SSB commemorations. December 12, 2002 A.D., typographical corrections, December 30, 2005 A. D. additional SSB commemorations (note, additional revisions which merely add S.S.B. commemorations such as deaths, and simple corrections, will no longer receive separate acknowledgment in this section).

BASILIAN COMMEMORATIONS

The Society of Clerks Secular of Saint Basil has many days to commemorate, many of which are entered throughout the liturgical calendar. But the most important are the days on which our brothers and sisters have fallen asleep in the Lord, when we should pray Requiem for them.

For it is written: And making a gathering, he (the most valliant Judas) sent twelve thousand drachms of silver to Jerusalem for sacrifice to be offered for the sins of the dead, thinking well and religiously concerning the resurrection. (For if he had not hoped that they that were slain should rise again, it would have seemed superfluous and vain to pray for the dead,) And because he considered that they who had fallen asleep with godliness, had great grace laid up for them. It is therefore a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead, that they may be loosed from sins. (2 Machabees 12:43-46)

Many records have been lost, and a multitude have died at times and in places we know not. These are those we know. They are entered in the calendar and recapitulated here.
