General Exorcism: We pray thee, O God, that every aerial and obscure phantom may withdraw itself from us; and that no demon of darkness may conceal himself in this _____; and that no evil spirit which instilleth darkening of intentions and rebelliousness of thought may descend into it.

THE PRAYERS AT THE RECEPTION OF CATECHUMENS

These prayers are prayed without regard as to whether or not the Catechumen is to be Baptized. These prayers constitute the formal reception of an already validly Baptized Catechumen into the Church. These prayers combined with the Sacrament of Baptism constitute the reception into the Church of a Catechumen who has not been validly Baptized.

At the Font or Baptistry, the Priest looseth the girdle of the Person who desireth Illumination, and removeth it, and pulleth it off from him; and placeth him with his face towards the East, clothed in one garment only, unshod, and with head uncovered, and with his arms hanging by his sides; and he breatheth thrice in his face; and signeth his brow and his breast thrice with the sign of the cross; and layeth his hand upon his head, saying

P. Let us pray to the Lord.
Choir/All. Lord, have mercy.
P. In thy Name, O Lord God of truth, and in the Name of thine Only-begotten Son, and of thy Holy Spirit, I lay my hand upon thy servant. N_____, who hath been found worthy to flee unto thy holy Name, and to take refuge under the shelter of thy wings. Remove far from him (her) his (her) former delusion, and fill him (her) with the faith, hope and love which are in thee; that he (she) may know that thou art the only true God, with thine Only-begotten Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, and thy Holy Spirit. Enable him (her) to walk in all thy commandments, and to fulfil those things which are well-pleasing unto thee; for if a man do those things, he shall find life in them. Inscribe him (her) in thy Book of Life, and unite him (her) to the flock of thine inheritance. And may thy holy Name be glorified in him (her), together with that of thy beloved Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, and of thy life-giving Spirit. Let thine eyes ever regard him (her) with mercy, and let thine ears attend unto the voice of his (her) supplication. Make him (her) to rejoice in the works of his (her) hands, and in all his (her) generation; that he (she) may render praise unto thee, may sing, worship and glorify the days of his (her) life.

P. For thou art a merciful God, who lovest mankind, and unto thee do we ascribe glory, to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now, and ever, and unto ages of ages.

Choir/All. Amen.

Priest. Peace be with you all.

Choir/All. And with thy Spirit.

Deacon. Bow your heads unto the Lord.

Choir/All. To thee, O Lord.

Then the Priest shall recite this Prayer.

P. O Lord our God, who, through the fulfilling of the baptismal font, by thy goodness dost sanctify, them that, believe on thee: Bless this thy child here present, and let thy blessing descend upon his (her) head. And as thou didst bless David the King by the hand of thy Prophet Samuel, bless also the head of thy servant, N_____, by the hand of me, a sinner, inspiring him (her) with thy Holy Spirit, that as he (she) increaseth in stature, and even unto hoary old age, he (she) may ascribe glory unto thee, and behold the good things of Jerusalem, all

P. For unto thee are due all glory, honour and worship, to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now, and ever, and unto ages of ages.

Choir/All. Amen.

Then he sheareth the hair in the form of a cross, saying:

P. N_____, the servant, of God, is shorn; In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Choir/All. Amen.

Deacon. Have mercy upon us, O God, according to thy great mercy, we beseech thee: hearken, and have mercy.

Choir/All. Lord, have mercy.

D/P. For the peace is from above, and for the salvation of our souls, let us pray to the Lord.

R. Lord have mercy.

D/P. For the peace of the whole world; for the welfare of God's holy Churches, and for the union of all: let us pray to the Lord.

R. Lord have mercy.

Priest. He (she) who hath put on thee, O Christ our God, boweth also his (her) head with us, unto thee. Keep him (her) ever a warrior invincible in every attack of those who assail him (her) and us; and make us all victors, even unto the end, through thy crown incorruptible. For thine it is to show mercy and to save us, and unto thee do we ascribe glory, together with thy Father who is from everlasting, and thine all-holy, and good, and life-giving Spirit, now, and ever, and unto ages of ages.

Choir/All. Amen.

Then the Priest dippeth the sponge in pure water, and sprinkleth the Baptized and Chrismated, saying:

P. Thou art justified. Thou art illumined. Thou art sanctified. Thou art washed: in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by the Spirit of our God.

And with the sponge he washeth the face and head of the one Baptized and Chrismated, and his breast, and his back, hands, and feet, saying:

P. Thou art baptized. Thou art illumined. Thou hast received anointment with the holy Chrism. Thou art sanctified. Thou art washed: in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Prayer at the cutting of the hair

Deacon. Let us pray to the Lord.

Choir/All. Lord, have mercy.

P. O Master, Lord our God, who hast honoured man with thine own image, thou hast fashioned him from a speech-endowed soul and a comely body (inasmuch as the body serveth the speech-endowed soul): for thou didst set the head on high, and endow it with the chiefest portion of the senses, which, nevertheless, impede not on another: and thou hast covered the head with hair, that it be not injured with the changes of the weather, and hast fitly joined together all his members, that with them all he may give thanks unto thee, the Great Artificer. Thou, the same Master, through thy chosen vessel, the Apostle Paul, hast given us a commandment that we should do all things to thy glory: Bless, now, thy servant, N_____, who is come to make a first offering shorn from the hair of his (her) head, and likewise his (her) Sponsor, and grant that they may all exercise themselves in thy law, and do those things which are well pleasing in thy sight.

thy great and exalted Name always, all the days of his (her) life.

Exclamation.

P/D. For all the Powers of Heaven sing praises unto thee, and thine is the glory, of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, now, and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

The First Exorcism

P. Let us pray to the Lord.
Choir/All. Lord, have mercy.

P. The Lord layeth thee under ban, O Devil: He who came into the world, and made his abode among men. that he might overthrow thy tyranny and deliver men; who also upon the Tree did triumph over the adverse powers, when the sun was darkened, and the earth did quake, and the graves were opened, and the bodies of the Saints arose; who also by death annihilated Death, and overthrew him who exercised the dominion of Death, that is thee, the Devil. I adjure thee by God, who hath revealed the Tree of Life, and hath arrayed in ranks the Cherubim and the flaming sword which turneth all ways to guard it: Be thou under ban. For I adjure thee by him who walketh upon the surface of the sea as it were dry land, and layeth under his ban the tempests of the winds; whose glance drieth up the deep, and whose interdict maketh the mountains to melt away. The same now, through us, doth lay thee under ban. Fear, begone and depart from this creature, and return not again, neither hide thyself in him (her), neither seek thou to meet him (her), nor to influence him (her), either by night or by day; either in the morning, or at noonday: but depart hence to thine own Tartarus, until the great Day of Judgment which is ordained. Fear thou God who sitteth upon the Cherubim and looketh upon the deeps; before whom tremble Angels and Archangels, Thrones, Dominions, Principalities, Authorities, Powers, the many-eyed Cherubim and the six-winged Seraphim; before whom, likewise, heaven and earth do quake, the sea and all that therein is. Begone, and depart from this sealed, newly-enlisted warrior of Christ our God. For I adjure thee by him who rideth upon the wings of the wind, and maketh his Angels spirits, and his ministers a flaming fire: Begone, and depart from this creature, with all thy powers and thine angels.

Exclamation.

P/D. For glorified is the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, now, and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

The Second Exorcism.

P. Let us pray to the Lord.

P. God, holy, terrible and glorious, who is unsearchable and inscrutable in all his works and might, hath foreordained for thee the penalty of eternal punishment, O Devil: the same, through us, his unworthy servant, doth command thee, with all thy confederate hosts, to depart hence, from him (her) who hath been newly sealed in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ, our true God. Wherefore I adjure thee, O most crafty, impure, vile, loathsome and alien spirit, by the might of Jesus Christ, who hath all power, both in heaven and on earth, and who said unto the deaf and dumb demon, Come out of the man, and in nowise enter thou a second time into him: Depart: Acknowledge the vainness of thy might, which hath not power even over swine. Call to mind him who, at thy request, commanded thee to enter into the herd of swine. Fear God, by whose decree the earth is established upon the waters; who hath made the heavens, and hath set the mountains with a line, and the valleys with a measure; and hath fixed bounds to the sands of the sea, and a firm path upon the stormy waters; who toucheth the mountains and they smoke; who clotheth himself with light as with a garment; who spreadeth out the heavens as it were a curtain; who covereth his exceeding high places with the waters; who hath made fast the earth upon its foundations, so that it shall not be removed unto ages of ages; who collecteth the waters of the sea and poureth it out upon the face of the whole earth: Begone and depart from him (her) who hath made himself (herself) ready for holy illumination. I adjure thee by the redeeming Passion of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by his precious Body and Blood, and by his terrible Coming-again; for he shall come, and shall not tarry, to judge the whole earth; and he shall chastise thee and thy confederate host with burning Gehenna, committing thee to outer darkness, where the worm ceaseth not, and the fire is not quenched. For of Christ our God is the dominion, with the Father and the Holy Spirit, now, and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

The Third Exorcism.

P. Let us pray to the Lord

THE ABLUTION

And on the eighth day the Baptized Person is brought again to the church for Ablution (often omitted in the West).

And the Priest looseth his girdle and his garment, saying this Prayer which followeth:

P. Let us pray to the Lord.

Choir/All. Lord, have mercy.

P. O thou who, through holy Baptism, hast given unto thy servant remission of sins, and hast bestowed upon him (her) a life of regeneration: Do thou, the same Lord and Master, ever graciously illumine his (her) heart with the light of thy countenance? Maintain the shield of his (her) faith unassailed by the enemy. Preserve pure and unpolluted the garment of incorruption wherewith thou hast endued, him (her), upholding inviolate in him (her), by thy grace, the seal of the Spirit, and showing mercy unto him (her) and unto us, through the multitude of thy mercies.

P. For blessed and glorified is thine all-honourable and majestic Name, of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, now, and ever, and unto ages of ages.

Choir/All. Amen.

A Second Prayer.

D. Let us pray to the Lord.

Choir/All. Lord, have mercy.

P. O Master, Lord our God, who through the Font bestowest heavenly Illumination upon them that are baptized; who hast regenerated thy newly-baptized servant by water and the Spirit, and hast granted unto him (her) remission of his (her) sins whether voluntary or involuntary:

P. Lay thine almighty hand upon him (her) and preserve him (her) by the power of goodness. Maintain unassailed the earnest of the Spirit, and make him (her) worthy of life everlasting, and of thy favour. For thou art our sanctification, and unto thee do we ascribe glory, to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now, and ever, and unto ages of ages.

Choir/All. Amen

Priest. Peace be with you all.

Choir/All. And with thy spirit.

Priest. Bow your heads unto the Lord.

Choir/All. To thee, O Lord.

faith of a pure confession, in all godliness, and in the fulfilling of the commandments of Christ all the days of his life.

Choir/All. Lord, have mercy.

P. For thou art a merciful God, who lovest mankind, and unto thee do we ascribe glory, to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now, and ever, and unto ages of ages.

Choir/All. Amen.

Priest. Glory to thee, O Christ-God our hope; glory to thee.

Choir/All. Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now, and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

D. Lord, have mercy.

D. Lord, have mercy.

D. Lord, have mercy. Bless.

THE BENEDICTION

And the Priest bestoweth the BENEDICTION (usually omitted).

P. May Christ, our true God, through the prayers of his all-pure Mother; of the holy, glorious and all-laudable Apostles; of Saint Basil; of Saint N. (the Patron Saint of the Temple); of Saint N. (the Saint of the day); of the holy and righteous Ancestors of God, Joachim and Anna; and of all the Saints, have mercy upon us and save us, forasmuch as he is good and loveth mankind.

P. O Lord of Sabaoath, the God of Israel, who healest every malady and every infirmity: Look upon thy servant; prove him (her) and search him (her), and root out every operation of the Devil. Rebuke the unclean spirits and expell them, and purify the works of thy hands; and exerting thy trenchant might, speedily crush down Satan under his (her) feet; and give him (her) victory over the same, and over his foul spirits; that having obtained mercy from thee, he (she) may be made worthy to partake of thy heavenly Mysteries; and may ascribe unto thee glory, to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now, and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

A Fourth Prayer

P. Let us pray to the Lord.

P. Thou who in verity existest, O Lord the Master; who hast created man in thine own likeness, and hast bestowed upon him the power of life eternal; who also despisest not those who have fallen away through sin, but hast provided salvation for the world through the incarnation of thy Christ: Do thou, the same Lord, delivering also this thy creature from the bondage of the enemy, receive him (her) into thy heavenly kingdom. Open the eyes of his (her) understanding, that the light of thy gospel may shine brightly in him (her). Yoke unto his (her) life a radiant Angel, who shall deliver him (her) from every snare of the adversary, from encounter with evil, from the demon of the noonday, and from evil visions.

Then the Priest breatheth upon his mouth, his brow, and his breast saying:

P. Expell from him (her) every evil and impure spirit which hideth and maketh its lair in his (her) heart. (which he prayeth thrice.)

P. Expell from him (her) every evil and impure spirit which hideth and maketh its lair in his (her) heart.

P. Expell from him (her) every evil and impure spirit which hideth and maketh its lair in his (her) heart.

P. The spirit of error, the spirit of guild, the spirit of idolatry and of every concupiscence; the spirit of deceit and of every uncleanness which operateth through the prompting of the Devil. And make him (her) a reason endowed sheep in the holy flock of thy Christ, an honorable member of thy Church, a consecrated vessel, a child of the light, and an heir of thy kingdom; that having lived in accordance with thy commandments, and preserved inviolate the seal, and kept his (her) garment undefiled, he (she) may receive the blessedness of the Saints in thy kingdom.

In a loud voice.

P. Through the grace, and bounties, and love towards mankind of thine Only-begotten Son, with whom thou art blessed, together with thy most holy, and good, and life-giving Spirit, now, and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Then the Priest turneth the person who is come to Baptism or to Conversion to face the west, unclad, unshod and having his hands uplifted. And he saith:

P. Dost thou renounce Satan, and all his Angels, and all his works, and all his service, and all his pride?

And the Catechumen maketh answer, or his Sponsor for him, and saith:

Catechumen. I do. (And this question and answer are made thrice.)

P. Dost thou renounce Satan, and all his Angels, and all his works, and all his service, and all his pride?

Catechumen. I do.

P. Dost thou renounce Satan, and all his Angels, and all his works, and all his service, and all his pride?

Catechumen. I do.

Again the Priest questioneth the Catechumen.

P. Hast thou renounced Satan?

And the Catechumen, or his Sponsor for him, maketh answer:

Catechumen. I have. (And this question and answer, likewise, are made thrice.)

P. Hast thou renounced Satan?

Catechumen. I have.

P. Hast thou renounced Satan?

Catechumen. I have.

Then saith the Priest:

P. Breathe and spit upon him.

And when he hath done this, the Priest turneth him to the east, with his hands lowered, and saith:

P. Dost thou unite thyself unto Christ?

liveth unto God. So do you also reckon that you are dead to sin, but alive unto God, in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Priest. Peace be unto thee.

Reader. And to thy spirit.

Deacon. Wisdom, let us attend!

Reader. Alleluia.

Deacon. Wisdom, O believers! Let us listen to the Holy Gospel.

Priest. Peace be with you all.

Choir. And with thy spirit.

Priest. The Lesson from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

Choir. Glory to thee, O Lord; glory to thee.

Deacon. Let us attend.

Priest. (Matt. 28:16.20) And the eleven disciples went into Galilee, unto the mountain where Jesus had appointed them. And seeing him they adored: but some doubted. And Jesus coming, spoke to them, saying: All power is given to me in heaven and in earth. Going therefore, teach ye all nations: baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost. Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you. And behold I am with you all days, even to the consummation of the world. Amen.

Choir. Glory to thee, O Lord; glory to thee.

LITANY

Then may be said the LITANY (usually omitted).

P. Have mercy upon us, O God, according to thy great mercy, we beseech thee: hearken, and have mercy.

Choir/All. Lord, have mercy.

Choir/All. Lord, have mercy.

Choir/All. Lord, have mercy.

P. Furthermore we pray for mercy, life, peace, health, salvation and remission of sins of the servant of God, N._____, the Sponsor.

Choir/All. Lord, have mercy.

P. Furthermore we pray for the newly-illuminated servant of God, N_____.

Choir/All. Lord, have mercy.

P. and All. As many as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ. Alleluia.

P. and All. As many as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ. Alleluia.

Deacon. Let us attend.

Priest. Peace be with you all.

Reader. And with thy spirit.

Deacon. Wisdom.

Reader. The Gradual (Prokimen) in the Third Tone. The Lord is my light and my salvation: whom then shall I fear?

Verse/All: The Lord is the strength of my life: of whom then shall I be afraid?

Deacon. Wisdom.

Reader. The Lesson from the Epistle of the holy Apostle Paul to the Romans.

Deacon. Let us attend.

Reader. (Rom. 6:3-11) Brethren:

Know you not that all we who are baptized in Christ Jesus are baptized in his death? For we are buried together with him by baptism into death: that, as Christ is risen from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we also may walk in newness of life. For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection. Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin may be destroyed, to the end that we may serve sin no longer. For he that is dead is justified from sin. Now, if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall live also together with Christ. Knowing that Christ, rising again from the dead, dieth now no more. Death shall no more have dominion over him. For in that he died to sin, he died once: but in that he liveth, he

And the Catechumen, or his Sponsor for him, maketh answer:

Catechumen. I do. (And this question and answer are made thrice.)

P. Dost thou unite thyself unto Christ?

Catechumen. I do.

P. Dost thou unite thyself unto Christ?

Catechumen. I do.

Then the Priest saith to him:

P. Hast thou united thyself unto Christ?

And he replieth:

Catechumen. I have.

P. Dost thou believe in him?

Catechumen. I believe in him as King and as God.

And he recieth The Holy Symbol of The Faith.

Catechumen. I believe in one God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, And of all things visible and invisible:

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God. Begotten of his Father before all worlds; Light of Light, Very

God of very God, Begotten, not made: Being of one-Essence with the Father; By whom all things were made; Who, for us men, and for our salvation, came down from heaven, And was incarnate by the Holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary, And was made man. And was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate, and suffered and was buried. And the third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures. And ascended into heaven, And sitteth on the right hand of the Father. And he shall come again with glory to judge both the quick and the dead; Whose kingdom shall have no end.

And in the Holy Ghost, the Lord, Giver of Life, Who proceedeth from the Father, Who with the Father and the Son together is worshipped and glorified, Who spake by the Prophets. In one Holy Catholic and Apostolic Church. I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins. I look for the Resurrection of the dead, And the Life of the world to come. Amen.

And when when he hath finished the Holy Symbol of the Faith the Priest inquireth of him:

P. Hast thou united thyself unto Christ?

Catechumen. I have. (This question and answer are also made thrice.)

P. Hast thou united thyself unto Christ?

Catechumen. I have.

P. Hast thou united thyself unto Christ?

Catechumen. I have.

P. Bow down also before him.

And the Catechumen boweth himself, saying:

Catechumen. I bow down before the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit, the Trinity, one in Essence and undivided.

Priest. Blessed is God, who willeth that all men should be saved, and should come to the knowledge of the truth, now, and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Then he reciteith this Prayer.

P. Let us pray to the Lord.

P. O Master, Lord our God, call thy servant, N_____, to thy holy Illumination, and grant unto him (her) that great grace of thy holy Baptism. Put off from him (her) the old man, and renew him (her) unto life everlasting; and fill him (her) with the power of thy Holy Spirit, in the unity of thy Christ: that he she may be no more a child of the body, but a child of thy kingdom. Through the good will and grace of thine Only-begotten Son, with whom thou art blessed, together with thy most holy, and good, and life-giving Spirit; now, and ever and unto ages of ages. Amen.

THE OFFICE OF HOLY CHRISMATION

And when he hath put the garment on him the Priest prayeth thus:

P. Blessed art thou, O Lord God Almighty, Source of all good things, Sun of Righteousness, who sheddest forth upon them that were in darkness the light of salvation, through the manifestation of thine only-begotten Son and our God; and who hast given unto us, unworthy though we be, blessed purification through hallowed water, and divine sanctification through life-giving Chrismation, who now, also, has been graciously pleased to regenerate thy servant that hath newly received Illumination, by water and the Spirit, and grantest unto him (her) remission of sins, whether voluntary or involuntary. Do thou, the same Mater, compassionate King of kings, grant also unto him (her) the seal of the gift of thy holy, and almighty, and adorable Spirit, and participation in the holy Body and the precious Blood of thy Christ. Keep him (her) in thy sanctification; confirm him (her), in the Orthodox faith; deliver him (her) from the Evil One, and from all the machinations of the same. And preserve his (her) soul in purity and uprightness, through the saving fear of thee; that he (she) may please thee in every deed and word, and may be a child and heir of thy heavenly kingdom.

Exclamation

P. For thou art our God, the God who showeth mercy and saveth; and unto thee do we ascribe glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now, and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

And after this Prayer he anointeth with the holy Chirsm the person who hath been baptized, making the sign of the Cross: On the brow, and on the eyes, and the nostrils, and the lips, and on both ears, and the breast, and the hands, and the feet saying each time:

(Anointing the brow)

P. The seal of the gift of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

(Anointing the eyes)

P. The seal of the gift of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

(Anointing the nostrils)

P. The seal of the gift of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

(Anointing the lips)

P. The seal of the gift of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

(Anointing the ears)

P. The seal of the gift of the they they shall not come nigh him. Thou art a place to hide me in; thou shalt preserve me from trouble; thou shalt compass me about with songs of deliverance. I will inform thee, and teach thee in the way wherein thou shalt go; and I will guide thee with mine eye. Be ye not like to horse and mule, which have no understanding; whose mouths must be held with bit and bridle, lest they fall upon thee. Great plagues remain for the ungodly; but whoso putteth his trust in the Lord, mercy embraceth him on every side. Be glad, O ye righteous, and rejoice in the Lord; and be joyful, all ye that are true of heart.

Then as he pulleth his garment upon him, the Priest saith:

P. The servant of God, N. _____, is clothed with the robe of righteousness; in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Then shall be sung the following Hymn (Tropar), in Tone VIII.

Choir/All. Vouchsafe unto me the robe of light, O thou who clothest thyself with light as with a garment, Christ our God, plenteous in mercy.

THE OFFICE OF HOLY BAPTISM

The Priest entereth the Sanctuary and pulleth on white vestments, and his gauntlets. And when he hath lighted all the tapers he taketh the censer, and goeth to the Font or the Baptistry, and censeth round about it; and having given the censer to be held, he maketh a reverence.

Then the Deacon saith:

D. Bless, Master.

And the Priest saith, aloud:

P. Blessed is the kingdom of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, now, and ever, and unto ages of ages.

HERE BEGINS THE BLESSING AND CONSECRATION OF THE BAPTISMAL WATERS

THIS PORTION IS TO BE OMITTED IF WATER PREVIOUSLY BLESSED AND CONSECRATED IS TO BE USED,

BUT THE PRIVATE PRAYER OF THE PRIEST IN THIS PORTION IS NOT TO BE OMITTED.

Choir/All. Amen!

And straightway the Deacon saith the Litany. (While this Litany is being prayed, the Priest prays the prayer *marked with the sign ** at the end of this Litany.)*

D. In peace let us pray to the Lord.

Choir/All. Lord, have mercy.

D. For the peace that is from above: Let us pray to the Lord.

Choir/All. Lord, have mercy.

D. That he will aid them and subdue under their feet every foe and adversary: Let us pray to the Lord.

Choir/All. Lord, have mercy.

D. That this water may be sanctified with the power, and effectual operation, and descent of the Holy Spirit: Let us pray to the Lord.

Choir/All. Lord, have mercy.

D. That there may be sent down into it the grace of redemption the blessing of Jordan: Let us pray to the Lord.

Choir/All. Lord, have mercy.

D. That there may come upon this water the purifying operation of the super-substantial Trinity: Let us pray to the Lord.

Choir/All. Lord, have mercy.

D. That we may be illumined by the light of understanding and piety, and by the descent of the Holy Spirit: Let us pray to the Lord.

Choir/All. Lord, have mercy.

D. That this water may prove effectual unto the averting of every snare of enemies, both visible and invisible: Let us pray to the Lord.

Choir/All. Lord, have mercy.

D. That he (she) who is baptized therein may be made worthy of the kingdom incorruptible: Let us pray to the Lord.

Choir/All. Lord, have mercy.

D. For him (her) who is now come unto holy Baptism, and for his (her) salvation: Let us pray to the Lord.

Choir/All. Lord, have mercy.

D. That he (she) may prove himself (herself) a child of light, and an heir of eternal good things: Let us pray to the Lord.

Choir/All. Lord, have mercy.

D. That he (she) may be a member and partaker of the death and resurrection of Christ our God: Let us pray to the Lord.

Choir/All. Lord, have mercy.

D. That he (she) may preserve his (her) baptismal garment and the earnest of Spirit pure and undefiled unto the dread Day of Christ our God: Let us pray to the Lord.

Choir/All. Lord, have mercy.

D. That his water may be to him (her) a laver of regeneration, unto the remission of sins, and a garment of incorruption: Let us pray to the Lord.

Choir/All. Lord, have mercy.

D. That the Lord God will hearken unto the voice of our petition: Let us pray to the Lord.

Choir/All. Lord, have mercy.

D. That he will deliver him (her) and us from all tribulation, wrath, and necessity: Let us pray to the Lord.

Choir/All. Lord, have mercy.

P. O compassionate and merciful God, who triest the heart and the reins, and who

HERE ENDS THE BLESSING AND CONSECRATION OF THE BAPTISMAL WATER

THE BAPTISM

The Person who is to be baptized is presented. The Priest taketh the oil with two fingers, and maketh the sign of the cross upon his brow, his breasts, and between his shoulders, saying:

P. The servant of God, N_____, is anointed with the oil of gladness; in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

And he anointeth his breast and shoulders.

On the breast, saying:

P. Unto the healing of soul and body.

On the ears.

P. Unto the hearing of faith.

On the hands.

P. Thy hand have made me and fashioned me.

On the feet.

P. That he may walk in the way of thy commandments.

And when his whole body is thus

annointed, the Priest baptiseth him, holding him upright, and looking toward the East, immersing or pouring, as he saith:

P. The servant of God, N_____, is baptized, in the name of the Father, Amen. And of the Son, Amen. And of the Holy Spirit, Amen.

At each invocation the Priest immerseth him, and raiseth him again - or pours the water over his forehead (IE: at Father, and at Son, and at Holy Spirit). And after the Baptism the Priest washeth his hands, singing with the People Psalm xxxii.

P. Blessed is he whose unrighteousness is forgiven, and whose sin is covered. Blessed the man unto whom the Lord imputeth no sin, and in whose spirit there is no guile. For whilst I held my tongue, my bones consumed away through my daily complaining. For thy hand is heavy upon me day and night, and my moisture is like the drought in summer. I will acknowledge my sin unto thee; and mine unrighteousness have I not hid. I said, I will confess my sins unto the Lord; and so thou forgavest the wickedness of my sin. For this shall every one that is godly make his prayer unto thee, in a time when thou mayest be found; but in the great water-floods manner, be a partaker of thy Resurrection; and having preserved the gift of thy Holy Spirit, and increased the measure of grace committed unto him (her), he (she) may receive the prize of his (her) high calling, and be numbered with the first-born whose names are written in heaven, in thee, our God and Lord, Jesus Christ. For unto thee are due glory, dominion, honour and worship, together with thy Father, who is from everlasting, and thine all-holy, and good, and life-giving Spirit, now, and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

P. Peace be with you all.

P. Bow your heads unto the Lord.

And he breatheth thrice upon the vessel containing the oil, and maketh thrice over it the sign of the cross, as it is held by the Deacon. And when the Deacon hath said:

D. Let us pray to the Lord.

The Priest saith the following Prayer:

P. O Lord and Master, the God of our fathers, who didst send unto them that were in the ark of Noah thy dove, bearing in its beak a twig of olive, the token of reconciliation and of salvation from the flood, the foreshadowing of the mystery of grace and didst provide the fruit of the olive for the fulfilling of thy Holy Mysteries; who thereby fillest them that were under the Law with thy Holy Spirit, and perfectest them that are under grace: Bless also this holy oil with the power, and operation and indwelling of thy Holy Spirit, that it may be an anointing unto incorruption, an armour of righteousness, to the renewing of soul and body, to the averting of every assault of the devil, to deliverance from all evil of those who shall be anointed therewith in faith, or who are partakers thereof; unto thy glory and the glory of thine Only-begotten Son, and of thine all-holy, and good, and life-giving Spirit, now, and ever, and unto ages of ages.

Choir/All. Amen.

Deacon. Let us attend.

Then the Priest, singing Alleluia

P and ALL. Alleluia ! Alleluia ! Alleluia !

(thrice) with the People, maketh three signs of the cross in the water with the oil. And he saith:

P. Blessed is God, who illumineth and sanctifieth every man that cometh into the world, now, and ever, and unto ages of ages.

Choir/All. Amen.

alone knowest the secret thoughts of men (for no deeds are hidden before thee, but all things are naked and manifest before thine eyes); Thou who knowest all things concerning me, regard me not with loathing, neither turn thou thy face from me; but consider not mine iniquities at this present hour, O thou who disregardest man's sins unto his repentance. And wash away the vileness of my body, and the pollution of my soul. And sanctify me wholly by thine all-perfect, invisible might, and by thy spiritual right hand; lest, while I proclaim liberty unto others, and administer this rite with perfect faith in thine unutterable love toward mankind, I myself may become the base slave of sin. Yea, O Master, who alone art good and full of love toward mankind, let not thy humble servant be led astray; but send thou down upon me power from on high, and strengthen thou me in the administration of thine impending Mystery, which is both great and most heavenly; and create the image of thy Christ in him (her) who now desireth to be born again through my unworthy ministry. And build him (her) up upon the foundation of thine Apostles and Prophets, that he (she) may not be overthrown; but implant him (her) firmly as a plant of truth, in thy Holy Catholic and Apostolic Church, that he (she) be not plucked out. That, as he (she) increaseth in godliness, through him (her) may be glorified thine all-holy Name, of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

(End of the Priest's private prayer.)

P. Succour us, save us, have mercy upon us, and keep us, O God, by thy grace.

Choir/All. Lord, have mercy.

P. Calling to remembrance our most holy, all-undefiled, most blessed and glorious Lady, the Birth-giver of God and ever-virgin Mary, with all the Saints, let us commend ourselves, and each other, and all our life unto Christ our God.

Choir/All. To thee, O Lord.

The Priest saith also the following Prayer, but aloud:

P. Great are thou, O Lord, and marvellous are thy works, and there is no word which sufficeth to hymn thy wonders (Thirce).

P. Great are thou, O Lord, and marvellous are thy works, and there is no word which sufficeth to hymn thy wonders.

P. Great are thou, O Lord, and marvellous are thy works, and there is no word which sufficeth to hymn thy wonders.

P. For thou, of thine own good will, hast brought into being all things which before were not, and by thy might thou upholdest creation, and by thy providence thou orderest the world. When thou hadst joined together the universe out of four elements, thou didst crown the circle of the year with four seasons. Before thee tremble all the Powers endowed with intelligence. The sun singeth unto thee. The moon glorifieth thee. The stars meet together before thy presence. The light obeyeth thee. The deeps tremble before thee. The water-springs are subject unto thee. Thou hast spread out the heavens as it were a curtain. Thou hast established the earth upon the waters. Thou hast set round about the sea barriers of sand. Thou hast shed abroad the air for breathing. The Angelic Powers serve thee. The Choirs of the Archangels fall down in adoration before thee. The many-eyed Cherubim, and the six-winged Seraphim, as they stand round about and fly, veil their faces in awe before thine ineffable glory. For thou, who art God inexpressible, existing uncreated before the ages, and ineffable, didst descend upon earth, and didst take on the semblance of a servant, and wast made in the likeness of man: for, because of the tender compassion of thy mercy, O Master, thou couldst not endure to behold mankind oppressed by the Devil; but thou didst come, and didst save us. We confess thy grace. We proclaim thy mercy. We conceal not thy gracious acts. Thou hast delivered the generation of our mortal nature. By thy birth thou didst sanctify a Virgin's womb. All creation magnifieth thee, who hast manifested thyself. For thou, O our God, hast revealed thyself upon earth, and hast dwelt among men. Thou didst, hallow the streams of Jordan, sending down upon them from heaven thy Holy Spirit, and didst crush the heads of the dragons who lurked there.

P. Wherefore, O King who lovest mankind, come thou now and sanctify this water, by the indwelling of thy Holy Spirit. (Thrice.)

P. Wherefore, O King who lovest mankind, come thou now and sanctify this water, by the indwelling of thy Holy Spirit.

P. Wherefore, O King who lovest mankind, come thou now and sanctify this water, by the indwelling of thy Holy Spirit.

P. And grant unto it the grace of redemption, the blessing of Jordan. Make it the fountain of incorruption, the gift of sanctification, the remission of sins, the remedy of infirmities; the final destruction of demons, unassailable by hostile powers, filled with angelic might. Let those who would ensnare thy creature flee far from it. For we have called upon thy Name, O Lord, and it is wonderful and glorious, and terrible unto adversaries.

The the Priest signeth the water, thrice with the sign of the cross, dipping his fingers therein. And breathing upon it, he saith:

P. Let all adverse powers be crushed beneath the sign of the image of thy cross. (Thrice.)

P. Let all adverse powers be crushed beneath the sign of the image of thy cross.

P. Let all adverse powers be crushed beneath the sign of the image of thy cross.

P. We pray thee, O God, that every aerial and obscure phantom may withdraw itself from us; and that no demon of darkness may conceal himself in this water; and that no evil spirit which instilleth darkening of intentions and rebelliousness of thought may descend into it with him (her) who is about to be baptized.

P. But do thou, O Master of all, show this water to be the water of redemption, the water of sanctification, the purification of flesh and spirit, the loosing of bonds, the illumination of the soul, the laver of regeneration, the renewal of the Spirit, the gift of adoption to sonship, the garment of incorruption, the fountain of life. For thou hast said, O Lord: Wash ye, be ye clean; put away evil things from your souls. Thou hast bestowed upon us from on high a new birth through water and the Spirit. Wherefore, O Lord, manifest thyself in this water, and grant that he (she) who is baptized therein may be transformed; that he (she) may put away from him (her) the old man, which is corrupt through the lusts of the flesh, and that he (she) may be clothed upon with the new man, and renewed after the image of him who created him (her): that being buried, after the pattern of thy death, in baptism, he (she) may, in like
